OAKWOOD GLEN ASSOCIATION

BOARD MEETING NOTES

The regular monthly meeting of the Oakwood Glen Association Board of Directors was held Tuesday, October 11, at the Oakwood Glen Park Pavilion. Directors present included all but Fred Nichols. Water Board representative Rick Corbin, Community Manager Stella Walleck, and homeowner John Pappas also attended.

Deed Restrictions Chairman Barb Fillion reported that unkept lawns continue to be the major problem. Funds were requested for legal action regarding driveway storage of an unauthorized vehicle. The Board is considering a proposal by a resident that the Association purchase and plant trees along Windy Point Drive.

Liz McNinch, Pool Use Committee, reported that there would be no more meetings till next spring. She reported that there are now only 11 working chaises and 2 chairs at the pool and requested funds to purchase additional furniture for next year. Funds were approved for 10 new chaises and 6 new chairs.

Julie Crider, Activities Chairman, requested to $550 for the Halloween Event for the subdivision. This will include the Spook House at the Park Pavilion, a Spacewalk, prizes, refreshments, and publicity. John Pappas, who engineered last year's successful Spook House, discussed this year's plans and asked for volunteers.

Maintenance & Development Chairman Greg Johnson reported that he, Jim McNinch, and some other volunteers have squared and lined the soccer field and are planning to realign the coals. Thanks to resident Brad Griep for use of the striping machine. He also reported that new trash receptacles had been placed in the park.

Security Director Dave Gleason, reported that there had been little activity in the subdivision recently. Additional overtime was approved for use during the Halloween event and 30 hours of overtime for November was also requested and approved.

President Johnson announced that a preliminary budget for 1989 has been prepared and that a special meeting has been set for October 24 for budget discussion. The final budget will be held Tuesday, Nov. 8, at 7:30 PM at the Oakwood Glen Pavilion. As always, all residents are welcome to attend.

No Dumping, Please

There have been several complaints from residents lately regarding trash and debris on vacant lots in the subdivision. Unfortunately, it appears the some Oakwood Gen residents are using these lots to dump their grass clippings, pine needles, wood, etc. Not only is this unsightly, it can present a safety hazard to children playing in the area.

Recently, at the request of the Board, Lexington Development has cleared several lots in the subdivision that were being heavily littered.

PLEASE, let's all be considerate of our neighbors and keep these, as well as all the vacant lots in the subdivision clear of litter and debris. Further littering may have to be cleaned up at the Association's expense, perhaps even increasing our maintenance fees.

Anyone who has an idea for a Christmas activity for the subdivision or who would like to help plan or participate in one, please join the Activities Committee Tuesday, Nov. 1, at 7:30 PM at the Park Pavilion, or call Julie at 370-2388.

No interest = no activity!

WATER BOARD NEWS

According to Water Board Representative Rick Corbin, construction for a filtration system for both wells used by Oakwood Glen has begun. The system is expected to be operational by spring, 1989.

Mr. Corbin also announced that our Water Board recently ratified the municipal district tax rate for next year. There was no increase in the current rate.

Help the Police Help You

When you notice something suspicious in the neighborhood or see a stranger in the area, note the following details:

- * What happened
- * When
- * Vehicle description and/or license number
- * Description of clothing
- * Any distinctive markings or habits

Practice your observation skills while you wait in traffic or in stores (discreetly, of course!). They may prove extremely important some day.

Soccer Field Improved

Thanks to the following residents who helped make improvements to our soccer field:

Greg Johnson and Jim McNinch and family helped measure, line, and paint the soccer field. Helping align and move one of the goals were Jim Gerometta, Jim O'Reilly, and Greg Johnson.

Also, special thanks to some of the neighborhood children who helped: Jimmy and Ricky Gerometta, Michael and Patrick O'Reilly, Eric Johnson, and Bryan and Matthew Johnson.

Thanks also to resident Brad Griep who lent a striping machine to the cause.

Klein HS Band & Orchestra News

Area high school students will compete for a few choice "chairs" in the All-Region and All-State Orchestra Tryouts on Nov. 12. This day-long process screens students as they individually audition. Once selected, All-Region participants partake in challenging music clinics and give a performance showcasing their talents. The concert will be Dec. 3 at Klein High School.

Other events coming up in November are a football game the 4th, 7:30 at Cy-Fair; Marching Bands of America Contest, the 5th, Rice Univ. Stadium, Public welcome; State Marching Competition, the 7th, Univ. of Texas Stadium, Austin; Band/Orchestra Booster Board Meeting, the 9th, 7:30 PM; All-Region and All-State Orchestra Tryouts, the 12th.

Early December events include All-Region Orchestra Clinic on the 2nd and All-Region Orchestra Concert on the 3rd, both at Klein High School.

PEOPLE, PLACES, & EVENTS Around the Neighborhood

Congratulations to Jack and Marcy Eannarelli on the arrival of their new son, John Anthony. John arrived on October 2 and joins big sister Jacqueline at their home on Ten Curves Dr.

Thanks to Barb and Dan Fillion for organizing the block party for White Tail Dr. About 40 people attended the event and enjoyed meeting friends and neighbors. Kids - parents, too - enjoyed apple bobbing, volleyball, bubble-gum blowing, and a penny scramble. Thanks to Randall's for providing hot dogs for the event.

Cub Scouts of Oakwood Glen enjoyed a campout at Camp Strake on Oct. 8. Beautiful weather cooperated and a good time was had by all, with campfires, a marbles tournament, a "lost child" hunt, tug-of-war, and more. Congratulations to all the new Bobcats of the subdivision!

By the way, the reason the Announcement Board stayed the same for so long was that the glass and lock had to be repaired. Thanks to Lori Cooney for doing such a great job taking care of announcements.

Adult Co-Ed Volleyball

Come join your neighbors for some recreational volleyball on Sunday afternoons at 4:00. Good exercise and good fun at Oakwood Glen Park in the rear of the subdivision.

BICYCLE ACCIDENTS CAN BE FATAL

The bicycle is truly a wonderful invention, giving kids some independence and enjoyable exercise at the same time, and giving parents a break from "taxi-ing" if the distance isn't too far.

Kids are taught bicycle safety every year at school, at scouts, and at home. One facet of bicycle safety that is often overlooked is the use of adequate lights and reflectors for riding at dusk or after dark.

A resident recently called after a near collision with a bike rider.
Proceeding through an intersection after stopping, he didn't see a speeding cyclist until he was illuminated by his headlights—almost too late! The cyclist had no light on his bike and no reflectors.

You may think that you or your child has no need for a light, but remember that it is getting dark earlier and will soon be dark before many residents get home from work. A last-minute dash to get a homework assignment, to retrieve something forgotten, or to get in a little exercise might be your last dash—period. If you do not have a light on your bike, PLEASE DO NOT RIDE AFTER DARK. Several serious accidents involving bicyclists have occurred in our area in recent years. Let's not have any more!
