

THE ACORN

Official Publication of Oakwood Glen Homeowners Association

Letter From The President

We will be having our annual July 4th celebration this year again at the front park. The parade will start at 10:30 from the back park and proceed to the front park. Hopefully the weather will cooperate better for us this year. Please have your bicycles dressed up for the parade. There will be awards given for the best 3 decorated bikes. If you would like to participate in this event please contact me at 281 376-2131. The back park clubhouse has been updated with a dishwasher and new counter tops and also a hot water heater. It is the Boards hope that these improvements will help those in the community that want to have special parties or weddings will now have the advantage of a more useable facility. A person has donated drapery for the windows and also there will be pictures and other accessories to decorate the clubhouse. There will be an open house on June 16 from 1-3 for you to come by and see the upgrades. If you need to book the clubhouse for any event please contact Nancy Haire (clubhouse manager) at 281.655-1451. We still have a remaining opening on the Board. If you are interested please send your resume to Consolidated Management. Their address is 2204 Timber Loch Place #245, The Woodlands, Texas 77380 or you can fax to them at 281-296-9788.

Bible Study for Oakwood Glen Residents

For anyone interested in attending a Bible study, you are welcome to join us each Sunday morning at 11:00 am at the back-park. This ministry is for all ages and all residents of Oakwood Glen. It's a wonderful time for us as residents to fellowship together and build a community of support and encouragement. For more information contact Kim Bartel of Living Stone Fellowship Ministries at (832) 717-7548.

Call Before You Dig!

The Utility Coordinating Committee (UCC) is a Damage Prevention Council. Please allow us to share some important safety information with you.

If you, or a contractor hired by you, are planning any type of digging (such as landscaping, installing sprinkler systems, swimming pools, spas, fences, decks etc.), you should first call the Lone Star Notification Center at (713) 223-4567 or (800) 669-8344 to identify potential buried powerlines, pipelines, or other service lines. A National Common Ground study reveals that fifty percent of underground utility damages are caused by people digging without knowing the location of buried utility lines. One careless dig can cause the following:

- Loss of service - Entire subdivisions, shopping malls and medical centers could lose electric power, gas service, telephone service, cable TV, 911 service and cellular phone connections. Someone in your neighborhood may depend on life support equipment which requires electric power.
- Expense - Labor, supplies and equipment to repair underground facilities can cost hundreds of dollars, in some cases thousands. Remember that insurance companies pass the cost onto consumers.
- Threat to life and health - If you hit a power line with mechanical equipment or hand digging tools, you can be shocked or electrocuted. If you hit a gas line, chances are you will cause a fire.

For safety's sake, plan your project. Call the Lone Star Notification Center 48 hours before you dig. Utility companies will come out and stake their buried lines free of charge. However, in Houston and some surrounding areas, power lines on private property may not belong to the utility (CenterPoint Energy) and will not be staked. You may contact private location companies for this service for a modest fee. Private location companies are in no way affiliated with the UCC, Lone Star Notification Center or CenterPoint Energy.

To request the location of underground utility lines, call the Lone Star Notification Center at 713-223-4567 or 800-669-8344. After waiting 48 hours, call the CenterPoint Energy hot line at 713-207-5463 if you have problems locating a gas or electric line.
